Burglars Hit Area Homes in 23 Crimes

Car Thefts, Lootings
Also High on List;
Boys Admit Theft

A burglary in which jewelry and other articles worth $892 were stolen and another house break-in in which loot worth $531 was stolen topped a list of 23 crimes reported to Quad-City authorities during the weekend.

Items valued at $892 were stolen in a burglary at the home of John Andrews, 1607 Pontoon road, he reported Thursday. Entry was gained through the rear door which may have been unlocked.

Taken were a 17-inch portable television set, a woman's pink and white shaver, a woman's watch with two diamonds, a white gold band, a pair of diamond earrings, a camera, a man's electric razor, a sport coat, a pair of blue trousers and a shirt.

Two TV Sets Stolen
Mrs. Patricia Trippi, Rural Route Two, reported Thursday to the Madison county sheriff's office that a 16-inch portable television set valued at $95, a 21-inch portable TV set valued at $189 and a flash camera valued at $69 were stolen in a burglary at her home. Entry was gained by prying a patio door.

Boys Admit Theft
Two juveniles, 9 and 10 years old, were apprehended by Venice police late Friday afternoon after one of the boys had stolen a bank from the home of Lennell Johnson, 204 Viola Jones Homes. Police said the bank contained about $40. Part of the money was recovered from a tin can in which it had been hidden.

Officers said the 10-year-old boy told them he had joined the other boy Friday afternoon a few minutes before the other boy picked up a piggy bank from in rear of the Viola Jones Home. They cut the bank open, hid part of the money in two cans, the youth related. Later they changed a number of half dollars into dollar bills at a grocery store, and then gave part of the money to several friends. Juvenile cards were filed.

Burglar Takes TV Set
A console television set was taken from the apartment of Mary Ann Lemont, 2106 Washington avenue, Saturday evening. The burglar forced open a transom, entered through the transom and then left through a rear door.

Burglary attempts were reported at 2 p.m. at the home of Harvey Boone, 3144 Jill avenue, where a rear door glass was broken out, and he was seen running away. Saturday at the home of Hubert Ray, 2500 Illinois avenue, where a rear window was broken out. Youngsters gained entry by breaking an east side window. It was reported at 4:10 p.m. Sunday. EMIL ULANSKI
Emil Ulanski, 78,
26-Year Alderman
In Madison, Dies

Emil Ulanski, 78, of 1614 Second street, former fire chief of Madison volunteer fire department and alderman of the First Ward in Madison for the past 26 years, died at 9:10 p.m. Saturday at the Parkway Manor Nursing Home in O'Fallon, of cancer. He had been in the St. Elizabeth Hospital eight weeks ago after suffering an apparent stroke at home and was later transferred to the nursing home.

A member of the volunteer fire department for 45 years, he served as fire chief from 1943 to 1956. He was also a member of the Fire Chiefs Association and Madison City Organization.

Mr. Ulanski was first elected a trustee of the village of Madison in 1941 and re-elected as alderman in March 1942 after the city of Madison was incorporated, an office which he still held at the time of his death.

Born in Poland, he came to this country as a small child and lived in North Dakota, Texas and St. Louis, moving to Madison 60 years ago. He had been employed at Scherer Brothers Grocery and the Madison-Venice Supply Co.

Ulanski, U.S. Marine Corps, stationed at Cherry Point, N.C.; two sisters, Mrs. Helen Kallinich of St. Louis and Mrs. (Josephine) Smith, both of Detroit, Mich.; seven grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Nemeoki Road Mishap

Conclusions From Vote

"In attempting to analyze what the vote on my behalf indicated, I drew several conclusions: I believe that above all other reasons, the citizens want the administration to continue to the depth of appreciation I really feel concerning the honor of being re-elected.

"An humble, gracious and sincere thank you is expressive, yet totally lacking in degree, compared to the depth of appreciation I really feel concerning the honor of being re-elected.

NEW NAMEOKI TOWNSHIP OFFICIALS

are shown taking their oaths of office Saturday morning following the official canvass of the April 1 election. In the foreground are Auditor Douglas Teator, Auditor Kenneth Gieson, Town Clerk Louis E. Whitsett, Auditor Robert Beedle, Assessor Joseph Cohen and Tax Collector Edgar A. Patrick.

Payment of $42,841 in interest on outstanding McKinley Bridge "B" bonds will be applied to the $30,000 interest of last Oct. 1, reducing to $177,159 the total amount of "B" bond interest now in default, Mayor John E. Lee of Venice told the city council at a regular meeting Friday night.

Mayor Lee said New York representatives of the bondholders notified him last week that the $42,841 comprised total funds available for retirement of "B" bond interest. The money will be pro-rated among the bondholders at $3.89 per $10 coupon.

The payment will be applied only to the $10,000 in "B" bond interest on which the city of Venice was forced to default last Oct. 1. Another $10,000 in interest was defaulted last Tuesday, April 1.

The "B" bond interest amounted to $220,000 per year on $11 million in outstanding bonds, due in installments of $10,000 each on Oct. 1 and April 1.

To Credit Coupons
Mayor Lee said each $10 interest coupon will be credited with the $3.89 payment and then returned to the bondholder, who may claim the balance at a later date as funds become available.

Default in "B" bond interest resulted from reduced traffic over McKinley Bridge since opening of the toll-free Chain of Rocks and Poplar street bridges to the north and south of Venice.

Bridge Manager Henry McCullen reported to the council Friday night that bridge traffic during March totaled 270,280.

Man, 29, Stabbed at Tavern; Charged

Kay Handon, 29, of 1505 St. Clair avenue was stabbed in the right side with a knife at 10:20 p.m. Friday at the Neighborhood Liquor store, 2320 Nemeoki road. He was rushed to St. Elizabeth Hospital for emergency surgery.

Witnesses said he had become involved in a dispute with another man, who held him from behind. He was then walked over and stabbed Handon, police were told.

Eloy Gracey, 36, of 2834 Clark street was arrested in the 1700 block of Poplar street at 7:15 a.m. Saturday and was charged at 10 a.m. Saturday with carrying a dangerous weapon in violation of a warrant signed by St. Elizabeth's Attorney Amerik Kachigian.

Gracey appeared before Magistrate Andreas Mateoson and was released on $250 bond to appear for a hearing at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday.

—It seemed the people were saying they realized the tremendous assault this drainage would be to our city when completed.

"Because of various attempts to sever the relationship of the local citizens with the city, we are now in a position to construct, with all things undesirable, many citizens were confused as to what was really true.

"The final vote indicated faith and confidence in the final position. The final vote seemed to say that we would not be responsible for any good, because the good things were and are visible throughout the entire area, no matter where you turn. Never once did I claim it was credit, yet, as mayor's candidate, anything projects through to completion.

"It is only when something goes all wrong that I get full credit, when very few can be found who want to share. Only when something is very popular do you find all hands reaching for a seat on the glory train. Thus, the pro-Party vote seemed to say, 'we realize you must take the bitter with the sweet, but you took it like a man and here's our token of respect.'

"Those who even say thanks to those who voted for my opponent for this is truly indicative of a democracy. I would not want it any other way. Yet, while most of the vote for my opponent was due to group advantage, many citizens were confused as to what was really true.

"At this point, may I request that any citizen who has a problem, concerning our city, take advantage of my open office policy. Tell me what you feel should be corrected or improved.

"This is not a 'just before election gimmick,' this is good any hour of any day that our office is open, and I will try to work with you in a completely honest manner. Granite City belongs to the people, and I pledge to keep it that way. This is my humble way of saying, thank you for your trust."

Three Hurt in One
Crash; Cars Damage
Building, Residence

Opposing Groups
In Madison Vote
May File Charges

The Madison city election campaign escalated Saturday, ten days before city officials are to be elected for new four-year terms. Both sides threatened federal action against the other faction.

At issue is the distribution of anti-administration handbills by two Granite Cityans, who were taken into custody by Madison police. Officers questioned them at the police station and said the men admitted putting circulars "behind mailboxes and in doorways and door knobs."

Mayor Stephen Maeras told the Press-Record yesterday that he plans to advise postal officials of the practice and request federal prosecution.

Cites Federal Rules
He said he believes placing of material behind mailboxes is a violation of regulations requiring postage on all material utilizing mailboxes.

An attorney consulted by the Press-Record yesterday said he called the incident "intimidation" and a possible violation of federal civil rights laws and of police power. He added that the pair is considering bringing legal action alleging false arrest.

Mayor Stephen Maeras said he noticed the handbill distribution near his home in the 800 block of Madison avenue while conversing with Deputy Sheriff John Cooper. He called it to Cooper's attention and also took a photograph of the distribution, the mayor related.

Later Saturday afternoon, Madison police Sgt. Rudy Uherick was in the same block in connection with his investigation of an auto collision in the neighborhood and was advised by Mayor Maeras that handbills were being circulated.

A few minutes later, Sgt. Uherick picked up a British light standard and carried it the full length of a road median prior to the head-on collision with the car of a 35-year-old man. He was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital with a brain concussion, right hand cuts and a possible skull injury. Kathleen Derbyshire, 21, also of Belleville, was admitted to the local hospital with a right leg fracture, a possible head and back injuries.

Patton was released after treatment for head cuts and bruised knees.

Derbyshire was charged with careless driving.

Struck by Car
Herbert Lynn, 2500 Sheridan avenue, was treated at St. Elizabeth Hospital at 2 a.m. Saturday for injuries sustained when he was struck by an auto in the parking lot at the rear of Johnny Lewis' Tavern, 2500 street and Madison avenue, Madison.

Lynn, 22, suffered a cerebral concussion, laceration to the right thigh and abrasions and contusions to the left hand and left ear. After treatment at St. Elizabeth Hospital, he was transferred to the Missouri Pacific Hospital, St. Louis.

Police said that Thomas A. Dooley, 22, of 95 Greener Homes, driver of the car, told officers his auto struck Lynn as a man jumped in front of his car and pointed a gun at Dooley while he was pulling out of the parking lot.

Dooley said Lynn and several companions had followed Dooley and his two companions.

Pedestrian Avoids Being Run Over, Hurdles Hood

A pedestrian, David Nicol, 29, of 2430 (r.) Madison avenue, escaped apparent injury at 12:40 p.m. Friday on 20th street between Grand avenue and State street despite an encounter with the eastbound auto of Gladys M. Hyman, 1703 Collinsville avenue, Madison.

Crossing the street northward, Nicol ran from between parked cars and was unable to stop in time when he noticed the approaching auto. To avoid being knocked down, he leaped over the hood of the car, which was unable to stop in time when he noticed the approaching auto. ## Sp/4 Roy Balley Awarded Bronze Star Medal

Army Specialist Four Roy Eugene Balley, 31, of Madison, has been awarded the Bronze Star Medal for heroism while serving with the 6th Engineer Battalion in Vietnam. The serviceman was wounded by grenade fire about the head, neck, left arm and chest last October, but returned to active duty without hospitalization.

He is the son of Mrs. Eliza and Mrs. Lorne Elders, 1725 Eliza street, Madison, and husband of Mrs. Carrie Balley, who until recently resided with the serviceman's parents. Mrs. Balley and the couple's daughter, Tina Lynn, 11 months old, now live in East St. Louis.

The citation accompanying the Bronze Star reads in part: "For heroism in connection with the military operations against a hostile force while serving with the 6th Engineer Battalion in Vietnam. The serviceman was driving his platoon leader when 15 Viet Cong suddenly opened up on the vehicle with intensive small arms and rocket propelled grenade fire. One RPG round landed less than five meters from the vehicle. Reacting quickly, Specialist Balley immediately put his vehicle in reverse, exposing himself to enemy fire, and began backing up while the platoon leader bravely covering fire."

Pt. Richards entered the Army on June 21, 1968, and was assigned to the 10th Airborne Division, 82nd Airborne Division, in Vietnam on Dec. 27.

The serviceman was born in Baldwin, Wis., and had resided in Granite City the past 13 years. He was graduated in June 1966 from Granite City high school and was employed at Owens-Illinois Box Co. in Madison prior to military service.

Besides his wife, infant son and parents, Pfc Richards is survived by three brothers: Vernon Clemens, 19, and Randy Clemens, 11, both at home, and Seaman Edward Clemens, 20, serving with the U. S. Navy in California; two sisters, Mrs. William (Wendy) Everts of St. Louis.

7th Sewer Line Collapse Occurs Today on Lynch

A third sewer break occurred in the 2500 block of Lynch avenue during the night, it was reported at 1:10 a.m. today.

The break is located east of the two sewer fractures in the same block.

William Warfield, superintendent of streets, immediately dispatched a crew to the scene and pumping operations were started.

Warfield recommended that the city council take action at its meeting tonight to arrange a contract for repairs.

He said the breaks, located in the old Dobrey slough area, are caused by the high water table, which is rising to the 10-inch sanitary sewer line, "where the sewers were placed too deeply when first constructed."

It was the seventh break in the area in the last 2½ months. The last one occurred on May 10, and the city employed A. H. Seebold Co. to repair the line. The initial break cost $39,547.

Warfield said the break—"was no surprise," and that more work must be done.

The city, meanwhile, is considering methods to seal the lines to prevent collapse in the future.

Excavation Gives Way Beneath Wheel of Car

When the northbound auto of Faith Parrish, 2330 Zippel avenue, made a right turn off Grand avenue onto 26th street at 2 a.m. Saturday, the right side of the road gave way, causing the car to sink into an excavation whose surface collapsed.

Sewer work has been in progress at the intersection. It was to trace the route of the 11-inch sewer line to the Pacific

Steel Imports Show Increase In February

Steel imports rose slightly in February over January but the dock strike on the East and Gulf Coasts held the total well below year-ago levels. The American Iron and Steel Institute reports, on the basis of Department of Commerce figures, that $68,000 tons of steel mill products entered the U. S. in February, up from the 610,000 tons in January.

The two-month total of 1,077,000 tons compared with 2,160,000 tons in the corresponding period of 1968. The decrease was ascribed largely to the dock strike, which continued into mid-February. The dollar value of steel imports in January and February was $136,584,000, a decrease from the $246,313,000 in the same period of 1968.

Pig iron imports of 13,000 tons during the first two months of the year were valued at $556,000, the Institute said.

Exports of steel mill products in the January and February period of 1969 totaled 305,000 net tons.

STAFF FOR A SECOND HOSPITAL UNAVAILABLE

To the Editor:

With reference to the March 10 letter in The Forum, "Additional Hospitals Needed in Area," the "local woman" advised that in a 30-day period a patient's hair was only combed once. Was the patient able to comb it herself, and if not, did she request anyone to comb it for her?

I am sure that if she had asked, someone would have combed it for her.

As to the patient being cared for with soiled sheets, I have never seen soiled linens left in a bed, nor have I ever heard of a patient being bathed with cold water.

As to the soiled linens being thrown on the floor, what is the aide supposed to do, hold them under her arm while changing the bed? I am sure that as soon as she was finished she took the soiled linens out.

As to the food, I cannot believe the patient was served a steak or anything of the kind. A patient could not cut, as all food served is perfectly prepared.

I also know that when a patient is unable to feed himself, an aide comes in as soon as all the trays are distributed and feeds them.

After all, there are times when we do not like the food we are given, but it is the food our doctor orders for us, and that is what we are given.

As to being unable to locate anyone after the patient passed away, I have found that there is always someone at the nurse's desk.

With reference to the March 17 letter, "Shortage of Doctors Harmful to Patients," does "no name please" know that it is the law that a doctor has to be a patient to the hospital, and also that no medication or hypnos or anything else may be given to the patient until ordered by a doctor?

So, as the stated a hypodermic was given his mother, I am sure that the nurse had been in touch with the doctor and knew that in his distraught condition and worry for his mother, he may not have noted this fact.

As to another hospital in the area, who will staff it? A building means nothing if they do not have doctors, nurses, aides, technicians, etc., to staff it.

I have been a patient in St. Elizabeth Hospital many times. Also, I or members of my immediate family have been treated in hospitals in St. Louis, East St. Louis, Springfield, Litchfield, Lisle, Oak Park, Evanston and Chicago, and in none of them was the service and care any better than in Granite City. In fact, some of them were not as good.

So, to all the Sisters, nurses, aides, technicians, dietitians, housekeepers, Candy Strippers and all St. Elizabeth's, "God bless you for a job well done," and I know many more with the same sentiments.

WARM WELCOME HERE AFTER VIETNAM DUTY

To the Editor:

Since leaving Granite City a few months ago I have been receiving the Press-Record regularly from my former neighbor.

This week I happened to be in Granite City on business and was reading the Press-Record last night. With all the political claims from one side to the other there just seemed to be nothing good going on in Granite City at the moment.

I have thought about this for some time, ever since my son got home from Vietnam. He was very nervous and very much on edge. He immediately sought a job. In a few days, he had found nothing and he went to the local Unemployment Office to file for his unemployment until he was given a G.I. wage.

I went along with him because of his nervous condition. He went to the counter and was questioned about his wages and where he worked and was given a form to fill out. In this was done rather matter-of-factly and in a somewhat curt manner.

As he was filling out his form I was sitting, just looking around the office. One man in particular stood out in her manner of speaking and her treatment of the people she waited on.

When my son had finished his papers he was in a rather irritable mood and he took the papers to the counter. This lady looked over the papers and asked a few more questions and had my son sign his name.

She chatted as she finished the papers and was very effective in setting my son at ease. He talked to her more than he had talked to any of his own family since returning. When we went to the employment side to register him for work, I asked what the lady's name was and was told that it was Mrs. DeShon.

As we left the counter I thanked her for being so helpful and so did my son. She merely said to him "You're welcome," Gary, and welcome home."

Upon leaving, my son remarked that he met people like that really make it seem like someone other than your family wanted you to come home and appreciated who he had been during the last two years. I cannot allow my name to be published below his letter since my son is still drawing his unemployment and a his claim does not run out for a year.

I would not want them to think he was looking for preferential treatment. His letter just wanted someone to know that this one person had a big influence on a returning service man and that there are still people in Granite City who care for their fellow man without any thought of gain.

GRATEFUL MOTHER

MITCHELL ROADS IN BEST CONDITION EVER

To the Editor:

I am writing in regard to a letter in The Forum about road conditions in Mitchell. I have lived in Mitchell for 11 years, and very little was ever done to improve the road conditions until Jim Estes was elected commissioner.

This gentleman has done an excellent job with what he has had to work with. For the first time, our road and many others do drain. And after the winter weather, at least we can travel without falling into big ruts or holes.

The roads are far from perfect, but they are the best we have ever had.

I did not vote for Jim Estes for road conditions, but if he ever runs again I will not only vote for him but work to see that he gets elected.

TOO OLD FOR JOB, TOO YOUNG FOR PARENTS

To the Editor:

I would like to know why widows under the age of 65 are treated like second-class citizens in Granite City. We are "too old" to work, but we are not "too young" to live in the government housing project.

In Madison, Collinsville and Venice, widows at 62 are allowed in the government project.

MADISON POLICIES FRIGHTEEN CITIZENS

To the Editor:

In regard to the letter in The Forum on March 20 issue concerning late Madison tavern hours and increased prices, our police and the chief of police are primarily responsible.

The mayor has refused to support a uniform 1 a.m. closing law in conjunction with Madison and St. Clair counties, St. Louis and St. Charles. He has no regard for the safety of the citizens of Madison, the business establishments have brought an alarming crime increase; this all seems to take place in the early morning hours.

Due to this, we are attracted undesirable from all areas and there are fights, shootings, stabbings, and robberies almost daily. Our police spend most of their time guarding taverns and protecting the owners, all at tremendous expense.

There are tavern owners reaping no benefit whatsoever from the late hours.

There are tavern owners reaping no benefit whatsoever from the late hours. There are tavern owners reaping no benefit whatsoever from the late hours.

These undesirable prowls our streets all night and in the wee morning hours, speeding up streets and causing accidents completely. It seems that our city is to become another East St. Louis under the present administration.

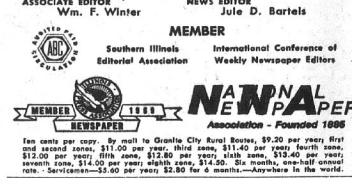

I fail to see many tavern licenses revoked in spite of all most daily occurrences of violence. One or many tavern owners fined or disciplined, although the mayor is liquor commissioner.

All I see is a few fined to a few of the people involved, with very few prosecutions for shootings.

Specific Tax Plan Unlikely to Pass, But Support for State Income Tax Is Growing

Despite the formation of a committee of Illinoisans to seek to put into effect a state income tax, we are more and more doubtful that the specific tax package proposed by Governor Ogilvie will be adopted.

With House Speaker Smith endorsing a 2% or 3% rate rather than the 4% income tax suggested by the governor, it seems likely that the higher figure may have been mentioned in awareness that some trimming by the General Assembly would occur.

In this way, the shock to taxpayers may be cushioned slightly while still achieving the primary objective—initiating a new and additional category of taxation in this state.

We believe that, at least as a practical matter, the governor is right and Lt. Gov. Simon is wrong in their stands on a uniform level for individual corporate income taxes in Illinois. Most interpretations of the 1870 state constitution agree that the same percentage could be legally applied, but that there must be one level for businesses and another for families, as many Democrats favor. It is true that a new constitution is to be written, but it could not become effective for several years.

Previous income tax discussions used as a "sugar coating" the elimination or substantial reduction of the sales tax, personal property tax or real estate tax. It is interesting that the current plan adopts only a "hold the line" approach to the sales tax and gives no guarantee that the two latter taxes will be cut.

On the basis of about $12 or $13 a person, the governor's suggestion that $125 million be distributed in state aid to local governments would mean close to $1 million for the Quad-City area in the form of grants to the county, cities and other local agencies.

Projections regarding state and local services and financing are intriguing and the 591-page budget and revenue documents made by the legislature by the governor provides much food for thought and speculation.

A caution for taxpayers is to keep in mind that various aspects of the budget are greatly during the public debate and Assembly deliberations. A proposal is only that and not an accomplished fact.

The greatest test of will power: To see a friend with a black eye and not ask any questions.

50 YEARS AGO

APRIL 7, 1919
A man worked a "twin brother" alibi on a circuit court jury. He was accused of robbing a restaurant by flourishing a butcher knife at the woman proprietor. He asserted that it was not him but his twin brother. There was no proof except his word that he has a twin, but he was so skillfully defended by Harold Badin that the witnesses against him became confused and, after 30 minutes of deliberation, the jury set him free.

The daily bathing habit, formed in youth, makes better men and women. Bergner Plumbing, Heating & Supply Co., 1925 State, 312 Madison.

Lodge 11, Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel & Tin Workers, elected as delegates to the national convention at Louisville, Ky., R. B. Haskett, Carl Heston, Business Agent R. H. Larner, Mead Weddell, R. F. Bennett, C. B. Balser, R. E. Williamson, H. H. Mott and Charles Chapman.

Larner served as teller at Pittsburgh for the national referendum in which W. F. Tighe defeated Walter Larkins for president of the association and Herbert F. Reese won over J. S. McGinley for secretary. Larkins had nearly unanimous support here, but Tighe was supported by eastern lodges.

by the tavern owners or the taxpayer, no doubt partly due to some of the circumstances. Many have been involved in fights with the police.

Perhaps the public should look at the backgrounds of public houses. There are license and demand personal of high competence and extensive training, with avoidance of politically-motivated appointments.

It was sickening to read that a Madison police officer was implicated in disposition of television sets from sealed interstate shipments. I regard this fact as a commentary on municipal police policies.

When will the people wake up and force the city to adopt and enforce a 1 a.m. tavern and night club closing hour so that we can sleep nights?

When will the duties of municipal employees be carried out to the satisfaction of taxpayers? The answer is probably "Never," since many Madison people are too scared to speak up and oppose conditions and policies associated with the city administration.

Naturally, such a change-over would put some hardship on the taxpayers.

Soaring Tax Rates Put Added Emphasis On Importance of Government Efficiency

It has finally happened. The $5 million bond issue has been surpassed, and additional governmental spending already authorized by voters could lead to a $6 million tax in the near future.

The only local area to put the $5 million in 1968 tax rates for 1969 collection is Granite City, with $5.24, but residents of every part of the Quad-Cities will pay at least $4.50. And corner "tax havens" that reduced the impact of the tax rate through low assessments have just about disappeared; a 50%-of-value assessing ratio has become standard for incorporated and unincorporated sections.

Because public support is needed if existing programs are to be continued and if present policy-setters are to be retained in office, it is not surprising that at least one local government agency has asked citizens to make an in-depth study of ways to improve efficiency.

Efficiency, which connotes not only greater economy but increased effectiveness, may be the only salvation in an era when taxes otherwise might soar out of sight.

One thing you can still get with a dollar is less.

Collective Bargaining, Avoidance of Public Employee Strikes Proposed

Illinois legislators would be wise to approve Senate Bills 18 and 19, which would be advantageous to public employees, the union movement, governmental agencies and citizens in general.

The bills would eliminate two "grey areas" of legal uncertainty that have confused and hampered labor-management relations in local-level taxing agencies.

The legislation would more clearly deny the right to strike, so that essential government services can be maintained without disruption, but it would also be a boon to public employees, spelling out their right to collective bargaining—a privilege sometimes exercised but still not authorized under existing Illinois law.

Nowadays, girls' knees are seen in places where once you didn't even see girls.

Some Gains In Curbing Election-Eve Charges

Pre-election information circulated in a local township this spring made a point similar to one we have tried to present.

There was what a group of candidates said: "In past elections, usually during the night before the election, dishonest and slanderous literature has been circulated, usually signed by some non-existent group as 'the group for good government.' It is timed so that there can be no answer, and the opposition always claims to have no knowledge of who circulated it. We will not participate in campaigning of this sort. Anything printed by us will be signed by our name."

The authors of this statement were successful, and the position taken by them and many of the other Quad-City aspirants this year seems to have resulted in an overall reduction in the volume of too-late-to-evaluate campaign charges.

Maybe such techniques will be abandoned almost entirely in the future. This would be wise, because the public likes to be dealt with squarely, and when an official or candidate resorts to other approaches they are likely to boomerang.

Sweeping Changes in Ill. Highway Classification, Financing Proposed

(Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois)

The Illinois Highway Study Commission has made recommendations for highway improvements to Governor Richard B. Ogilvie and to members of the 76th Illinois General Assembly, and has offered legislation in support of its proposals.

The study commission recommends a raise in the present six-cents-per-gallon motor fuel tax to eight cents per gallon and a higher Illinois general assembly, and has offered legislation in support of its proposals.

The study commission recommends a raise in the present six-cents-per-gallon motor fuel tax to eight cents per gallon and a higher Illinois general assembly, and has offered legislation in support of its proposals.

Classifications and registration fees on passenger cars are recommended to be changed to rates of $20 per vehicle for cars of 35 and less horsepower and $30 per vehicle over 35 horsepower. Truck registration fees are also proposed to be increased.

New revenues in the form of excise taxes are suggested as follows:

Ten cents per pound be levied on new tires and tubes and five cents per pound on tread rubber when these products are sold for use on Illinois highways; an excise tax of $1 be levied on batteries sold in Illinois for use in Illinois vehicles; and an excise tax of 10 cents per quart be levied on motor oil when sold in Illinois for use in motor vehicles.

All state-collected highway revenues would be deposited in the state treasury in a newly created Highway User Tax Fund to retire the bonds.

The Highway Commission further recommends a functional classification of all roads so that there would be an orderly grouping of highways, roads and streets into systems according to their service characteristics.

Naturally, such a change-over would put some hardship on the taxpayers.

Advance Planning Process Enables Sites to Be Acquired Reasonably

(Granite City Long-Range Plan)

To provide a basis for planning, it is necessary to formulate community development goals and objectives and to state specific plan assumptions. These have been outlined in the last five articles.

Community development standards are a set of guides or yardsticks used to evaluate the present adequacy of such community facilities as streets, schools, parks and municipal buildings.

Such standards can also be used to estimate or project what the future needs for community facilities will be.

By determining future requirements for community facilities—and their approximate costs—in advance of actual need, properly located sites can be reserved and acquired, and the financing for new facilities can be programmed over a long-term period.

Community development standards must be acceptable to the citizens of a community. The standards must be reasonable and practical to attain a level of quality that is acceptable to the community.

Next: Implementing the plan.

"There Ought To Be A Law . . ."

Letters which state officials and legislators receive frequently point out some difficulty and then suggest, "there ought to be a law on this."

Sometimes they are right; sometimes they are wrong; and sometimes a law won't help appreciably.

Let me give you a practical example. I have been asked by one of the ones who has bothered me for some years as I have traveled about the state has been the auto salvage yard at which there has been no attempt at screening or keeping reasonable order.

Some of these places have done a good job, but many have not.

So, in 1965 when I was a member of the Senate, I introduced a bill which became law which set out the screening of all salvage yards. We even had arranged for the planting of seedlings as compliance with the law, so no one would have to be hurt and eventually things would get better.

But two years after the law was enacted, you could see more places violating the law than observing it.

Two years later we changed the law to put it into the hands of the State Highway Department, and they have been too short of funds to do much either.

The law is there, but there has been little compliance with it.

It happens to think the law is right, and needed. But the law is not always the answer to a problem.

I also remember when as a freshman member of the House, I introduced a bill which a hospital in my district requested. The bill would have been a good bill, but the hospital, but as it turned out, several hundred other hospitals in the state would have been hurt by my proposal. My bill was defeated, as it should have been.

There are also areas where the law can lead and perhaps help public opinion, but where voluntary groups and the public ultimately must help us reach desirable goals.

A good example of this is "open housing" legislation. The federal law and court decisions are strong and helpful, but northern states (but not Illinois) have open housing laws, laws which I support and believe are needed.

Yet all of these have not changed housing patterns much. Discrimination in housing is still a major fact of life. There are still people who harbor fears that an integrated neighborhood is an economic threat.

In this area, facts must replace fears, and all the molders of public opinion have to play a role.

The law must play its role, but that role always has been and always will be a limited one.

25 YEARS AGO

APRIL 7, 1944

The first three of eight Women's Army Corps officers expected to take over key administrative positions have arrived at the Granite City Engineer Depot. They are Capt. Margaret Glasscock, Capt. Mary T. Van Alst and Second Lieut. Sarah E. Lee. No male officers have been replaced yet, but eventually the WAC will relieve an equal number of men for combat duty.

The Madison city council accepted recommendations submitted by the City Planning Commission outlining a postwar development program estimated to cost $1,464,800. The program was presented by George T. Wilkins sr., chairman, and E. A. Friedman, vice-chairman. Street, sewer, school, library and municipal building projects are included.

Sponsors are the Mutual Aid Society, the Pedagogical First Bulgarian Women's Macedonian Ladies Aid Society, Bulgarian Orthodox Churches of Madison and Granite City, Macedonia American League and the IWO Bulgarian Branch.

George W. Frack was re-elected supervisor of Nameoki Township, with William Pressman assistant supervisor and Frank Hoelscher school trustee. The opposition ticket, the Independent Labor Party, had made little effort to get out the vote. There was no opposition in Venice township.

Howlett Advocates

Consolidation of local governments for better efficiency can be a protection against too much concentration of power at federal and state levels, Michael J. Howlett, state Auditor of Public Accounts, said today.

Addressing a luncheon of the Highland Park Rotary club, Howlett said Illinois has too many local governments and should try to merge some of them or abolish those which are no longer effective.

"Local governments are creatures of the state government," said Howlett. "Although local government is supported chiefly by local property taxes, it draws substantial nourishment from state government."

Local Government Consolidation for Better Efficiency

"This is true throughout the United States, not just Illinois. In fiscal 1967, the 50 state governments paid $19.1 billion to local governments, an average of $87 for every man, woman and child in the population."

"This is a 79% rise in state governmental expenditure since the 1962 Census of Governments when the total was $10.9 billion, or $59 per capita. More than a third of state general expenditure is merely a distribution of money to local governments."

"State aid to local governments in Illinois in fiscal 1967 was $703,314,000, or $84.56 per capita, an increase of 70% in per capita amount in five years and 190% in ten years."

"We have had a tradition in America of strong local control of government. The township form of government, for control of tax assessment, rural roads and general assistance to the poor was in existence before the federal government and is still strong in Illinois."

"We want to keep our strong local control, but the best way to keep it is to make it work. If we find we have to start up a new local government every time we want a new service, we will eventually weaken local control."

"We have 6453 local governments under the state government—too many. Some of them should be eliminated and their functions consolidated."

"A citizen who finds himself paying taxes to a dozen or more local government bodies hasn't the time to watch each one to keep track of what it is doing."

"He is apt to wonder why we

Kete Completes School Finance Teaching Film

School finance principles for use in fifth grade classrooms are taught through the use of a wide range of visuals in a special 20-minute television production recently produced on videotape by St. Louis educational TV station Kete, Channel 9. The film is part of a series, Events in Focus, soon to be distributed to other ETV stations throughout the nation.

The special school finance teaching resource was prepared by Kete's director of school services, Basil G. Murray, and Events in Focus host Paul Detrich. The videotape has been offered for use as a television resource for teaching about schools in school through the Central Educational Network, a programming cooperative of 21 midwestern ETV stations.

One visual aid used in the presentation, contrasting per pupil costs of education in 1945 to costs today, utilizes replicas of Murray and Detrich—complete with their contrasting hair styles, one crewcut and the other mod-length—to emphasize how times change not only haircuts but also per pupil education costs.

"Each year I have held public office I have made public my gross income in detail. The following figures are for the year 1968 and include income for my wife as well as myself," Lt. Gov. Paul Simon said today in listing total income of $22,365.

"The figures show that for the first time since holding public office, there has been a decline in gross personal income over the previous year, caused by the political campaign. ## 2 New Masters Degrees Approved For SIU-SW

The Illinois State Board of Higher Education has approved two new masters degrees by Southern Illinois University-Southwestern campus Business Division. One will be a master of business administration degree and the other will be either a master of arts or the master of science degree in economics.

"The Master of Business Administration degree program will provide an educational foundation for executive careers in the business world," Kenneth H. Myers, dean of the Business Division, said. The program will develop a view of a business as a total, integrated, decision-making system.

The master of arts program will emphasize the role of economics as a social science and is designed to blend with other, related segments of liberal arts and sciences, Myers said.

The master of science program will provide a more specialized training in the field of economics, stressing business decision-making and the application of quantitative techniques used in solving business problems.

Applications from candidates for masters degrees in these fields will be accepted immediately at the SIU-SW campus, Dean Myers said. SIU is currently awarding other masters degrees at the Southwestern campus in 18 fields.

A suit for $100,000 was filed last week in Madison county circuit court for Steven Smith, a minor, by his father Robert Smith, against Glyn Hodge, doing business as the Hodge Real Estate & Insurance agency, and Harold Hindman, an agent of the firm.

According to the complaint, the boy, then four, was injured last June 26 while playing at 2118-16 State street where the agency had a repair project under way. It charges that a power saw was placed near the boy, and when it became activated, he suffered permanent injury to his right hand and fingers.

Bunny Visits Children Hospitalized Here

A large white bunny with long pink ears carrying a decorated basket filled with hand-made Easter ducklings and other toys visited young patients in the Pediatrics ward at St. Elizabeth Hospital on Thursday.

The "bunny" was Mrs. Jeanette Walton, whose husband, Kenneth, is manager of a McDonald's drive-in in Florissant, Mo. The local hospital was the third one visited that day by the Missouri resident, who was accompanied by Mrs. Freda Embry, 5 Shirlin drive, wife of David Embry, owner of the local McDonald's drive-in on Johnson road. Other calls were made at Wood River Township Hospital and Lutheran Hospital, St. Louis.

The costume and gifts—tiny wood yarn ducklings were created by Mrs. Walton, who also distributed hand puppets and "flying hamburger" toys to the youthful patients, Mrs. Embry said.

Carman Crushes Hand, Sues GM&O for $30,000

A suit for $30,000 was filed last week in Madison county circuit court at Edwardsville for Jesse L. Ewing against the Gulf, Mobile & Ohio Railroad as the result of injuries sustained in an accident Nov. 26, 1968, in the Venice rail yards.

The complaint alleges that Ewing, a carman at the railroad's Venice repair track, was pushing an air jack from one end of a freight car to the other when a pin slipped out of the handle, causing it to swivel and crush his left hand. Negligence was charged.

GC Navy Commander's Vessel Off Vietnam

Lt. Commander Leland S. Beedle Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Leland S. Beedle, 308 Wayne avenue, is the executive officer of the guided missile destroyer USS Lynde McCormick, currently on station in the shallow waters off Vietnam's coastline. The Navy officer is the husband of the former Miss Gene M. Moss, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ora E. Moss, reside at 2904 Wayne avenue, and the brother of Navy Lt. Ralph E. Beedle, chief engineer of the nuclear submarine, Queenfish, and of Robert W. Beedle, successful candidate for auditor in Tuesday's Nameoki township election.

According to a U. S. Navy release, dated Vung Tau, Vietnam, March 24, "The USS Lynde McCormick concentrated a barrage of high explosives on a Viet Cong base camp 80 miles southwest of here, this morning. Firing a withering series of rapid fire salvos, the San Diego based Guided Missile Destroyer methodically leveled the 1000 yard camp area.

"Hold her position carefully in the treacherous shallows of the lower delta, McCormick shelled the out of sight target with the aid of an airborne Marine spotter circling almost directly over the impact point. The spotter repeatedly swept across the camp area in a single engine light plane calling out the changes needed to shift the aim of the destroyer's heavy guns.

"His damage report, delivered in terse language, grimly described the scene as 'Two military structures destroyed, ten other buildings are damaged, some burning, three fortified bunkers are damaged. A fire is burning in a grain storage area.'

The Lynde McCormick, well known for her fire power and efficiency earlier this year in the II Corps area, is commanded by Commander William H. Rowden, U. S. Navy of Vermont. The ship presently is conducting her fourth deployment to the combat area since 1965.

Lt. Commander and Mrs. Beedle, with their son, Michael, 13, make their home in Clairmont, a northern suburb of San Diego, Calif.

WO Lopez Starts 2nd Vietnam Tour Today

Warrant Officer Michael Lopez, staff photographer for the Press-Record until he enlisted for helicopter pilot training in 1965, left California last evening by military transport plane for a second tour of duty in Vietnam.

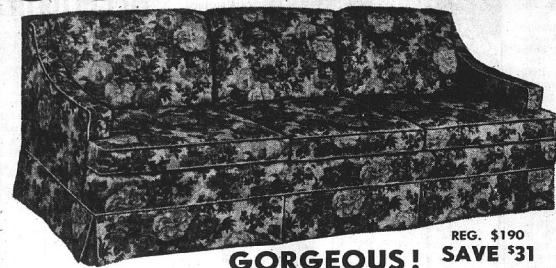

Early yesterday morning, he departed by plane from St. Louis for the west coast embarkation point, after spending the past four weeks on furlough visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen J. Lopez, 25 Hampton drive, Glen Carbon. The family formerly resided in Venice.

WO Lopez enlisted in the U. S. Army in October 1965 and received his commission and pilot wings one year later at Fort Rucker, Ala. He was assigned to the 12th Assault Helicopter Co., in Vietnam in November 1966, and spent the next 12 months as a Huey chopper pilot and aerial photographer.

While in Vietnam on his first tour, Lopez served in various combat zones and received several decorations, including the Air Medal for "sustained aerial flights in support of combat ground forces of the Republic of Vietnam by participating in 25 aerial missions within an 11-day period-Nov. 23 to Dec. 3, 1966."

Since returning to the U. S., the officer has been stationed at Fort Rucker, Ala., and Fort Wolters, Tex. He also completed training on the new Cobra attack helicopters at Hunter Air Force Base, Ga., two months ago.

NLRB Holds Picketing Legal in 1968 Strike

International Chemical Workers Local 50 whose members are employed at the Granite City Steel Co. blast furnace department, have been informed by the National Labor Relations board that its picketing of a construction workers gate at the blast plant during a strike last fall has been held legal, according to Frank Ronco, Collinsville, business representative of the union.

Ronco said the union was notified in a letter from Joseph B. Solen, regional NLRB director at St. Louis that a complaint against the union based on the picketing of the construction workers gate was withdrawn after the NLRB held "the picketing was primary and therefore legal."

The charge of illegal picketing grew out of Chemical Workers picketing a gate through which construction workers engaged in repair of one of the plant's blast furnaces had been permitted to enter the plant during the early stages of the strike. The strike involved nearly 1000 chemical workers, began on Oct. 1 and ended with a contract settlement Nov. 22.

You get well... we'll worry about the bills

One good reason for staying healthy these days is the high price of getting sick. And, one out of every four persons is disabled every year, either permanently or temporarily. But if you are protected by Ohio National accident and sickness insurance, you can receive up to $1000 every month, no matter how long your disability lasts. Then, you can forget about the bills and spend your time getting well. Now's a good time for you to get together to discuss your financial good health.

Girl, 7, Bitten by Rat, May Need Rabies Shots

A seven-year-old Venice girl faces the prospect of a long and painful series of rabies shots after she was bitten about the face, apparently by a rat, while she was sleeping early Friday morning.

Venice police said they received a report from St. Elizabeth Hospital that the child had been brought in for treatment about 4 a.m. The girl was bitten severely on the cheek under the left eye, authorities said.

Mrs. Fanny Pearl King, 1107 Bissell street, mother of the girl, said a hole had been chewed in the pillow on which the child slept. She told police that "rats as big as kittens" are home.

Police said a report of the incident has been referred to the city health inspector for investigation.

Rep. Smith Backs Income Tax, But Opposes 4% Rate

House Speaker Ralph T. Smith (R-Alton) will support an Illinois income tax proposal because "it is the only means of financing needed state programs," but he will not favor a 4% tax as proposed by Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie, the legislator said Friday in a statement clarifying his stand on the tax proposal.

Rep. Smith said since some of his comments on Gov. Ogilvie's budget message to the General Assembly had been misinterpreted, "I would like to make it clear that I am not in favor of a 4% income tax, and do not think it will be necessary. I believe a tax of 2%, or at the most 3% will be enough.

Since the tax will be deductible from federal income tax and will provide the means for some relief on the sales and property taxes, "I would hope the people will accept it," Smith said.

Doesn't Like Taxes

"I am not in favor of any taxes," he added, "I pay them just like everyone else but, also like everyone else, I don't like them. I do recognize, however, that taxes are necessary to run our government."

"The basic part of the governor's message concerns the necessity of increasing state aid to our public schools by $800 million per year. Since these funds are necessary to give our children quality education, and since increased state aid is the only way to reduce the burden of school taxes on the property taxpayer, I intend to support the increase."

"In addition," he continued, "the governor anticipates a similar increase in our support of our state universities and junior colleges, since they will have enrollment requests in the next ten years twice as large as they are now."

Degree is Important

"It seems reasonable to support a substantial part of this increase since a college degree is as important now to our young people as a high school diploma once was."

"If this extra money is to be spent, it must come from taxes. The governor suggested substantial increases in tobacco products, liquor and race track taxes, but these won't produce enough money to do the job. He does not want to increase the sales tax from its present 5% and I agree with him."

"This leaves only a state income tax as the vehicle to produce money."

Indicted in GC Bank Robbery

Robert Francis Foster, 29, of San Francisco, formerly of Wood River, has been indicted by a federal grand jury in Springfield on a charge of robbing the First Granite City National bank of $12,000 last Oct. 21.

Foster is in custody in Springfield where he previously was indicted in the March 10 robbery of the First National bank of Wood River of $700.

Foster and a woman companion were arrested a short distance from the Wood River bank a few minutes after the robbery as Foster was getting in an auto driven by the woman. Police recovered an attaché case containing the $700 taken from the Wood River bank. No money taken from the Granite City bank has been recovered.

Authorities said Foster lived in Wood River until about ten years ago when he moved to California.

Police said that in both the Granite City and Wood River bank robberies, a man entered the bank carrying an attaché case and gave notes to the teller instructing him to put money in the case.

Foster has pleaded innocent to the Wood River robbery incident.

Maryville Boy Dies; Tangles in Rope Swing

A young Maryville boy who apparently strangled himself when he became tangled in a rope swing while playing was pronounced dead upon arrival at St. Elizabeth Hospital at 5:40 p.m. Thursday.

Ten-year-old William Charles Brantley, whose parents reside at 124 Bauer lane, Maryville, was playing on a rope swing hanging from a tree in the backyard of his home when the tragedy occurred. Several neighborhood children were believed in the vicinity, but the boy apparently became tangled in the rope and may not have been able to call out for help.

The Maryville, Ill. school fourth grade pupil was brought by ambulance to the local hospital. An inquest will be conducted by Madison County Deputy Coroner Herbert A. Kassaly.

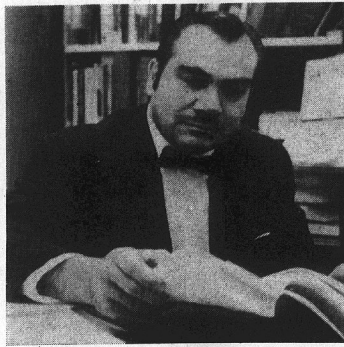

Beside his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Brantley, the boy is survived by one sister, Robin Sue, 13 years; his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Haller of Maryville; paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Brantley of Edwardsville; and a maternal great-grandmother, Mrs. Alvia Wylder of Maryville.

Funeral services were held Sunday in Collinsville, with interment at Liberty Prairie Cemetery, Ft. Russell township.

ROBERT W. DUNCAN, SIU-SW English and literature professor who won first prize in a one-act play contest.

SIU-SW English Prof Wins First with Play

Robert W. Duncan, professor of English language and literature at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern campus, has received first prize for his one-act play, "Adam Had Red Hair."

Sponsored by the St. Louis Poetry Center, the contest included entries from Missouri and eight surrounding states. Scripts were submitted under pen names and only original plays which had never been produced were eligible. This was Duncan's first entry in the annual competition sponsored by the Center, which holds monthly workshops in the St. Louis Library.

In his play, done in blank verse, Prof. Duncan says he leaned on "the myth about Lilith, Adam's first wife." The play will be produced in St. Louis on April 27 under the direction of Vance Fulkerson, speech and theater teacher at Wood River Community high school. Duncan said he was pleased about Fulkerson's directing the play. "It's a good director—a real pro," the SIU-SW professor said.

A former newspaper reporter, Duncan has written for scholarly publications and contributes regularly to men's magazines and newspaper supplements. A naval aviator during world war II, he has sold scores of stories and articles to Air Force and Navy aviation publications and Air Facts.

Before coming to SIU-SW in 1957, Duncan taught at the University of Cincinnati, where he received his Ph.D. degree, Wayne State University and the University of Wichita.

He and his wife live in Alton at 816 Grove street. The Duncans have three sons.

East Europe Performing Arts Center Is Started

A Center for Soviet and Eastern European Studies in the Performing Arts has been established at the Southern Illinois University Carbondale campus. The Center will concentrate on the cultural life of the area that includes the Soviet Union, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Bulgaria, Rumania and Yugoslavia, Herbert Marshall, center director, said.

Marshall, British theater authority, writer, translator and journalist, said that to bring the "cold war" to an end and to develop closer relations with these countries, it is not sufficient to study their economic and political systems.

"It is imperative that both sides know and appreciate each others mode of living." Primary objective of the center is to maintain a repository of information for interested scholars on heretofore untouched areas.

Now a distinguished visiting professor at SIU, Marshall is bringing to the university his collections of books, magazines, illustrations, manuscripts, records and tape recordings concerning the performing arts of the countries involved.

Marshall, who called himself a "world citizen," studied during the early 1930s under Sergei M. Eisenstein, Russian theater director and motion picture producer, at the Higher Institute of Cinematography in Moscow. Meanwhile, he was the co-founder and an assistant editor of the Moscow Daily News, the Soviet Union's first English daily.

He has directed theater and film productions in Russia and at one time served as theater consultant to the Indian government on theater architecture and the development of a professional theater.

Stouffer of Sao Paulo, Brazil is serving as evangelist for the revival effort which began Sunday morning and will continue through next Sunday. The pastor, Rev. ### Nameoki Twp. Officials Sworn-In; Canvass Held

An official canvass of votes cast in last Tuesday's election in Nameoki township took place at 10 a.m. Saturday, followed by swearing-in ceremonies for the new township officials. The ceremony was conducted by retiring Town Clerk John Karlechick.

One new township official expressed surprise that the defeated incumbent state chose to hold the swearing-in as quickly as Saturday morning, noting that he had received a telephone call Friday evening advising him that the ceremony would take place after the vote canvass.

Under state law, a 20-day period is allowed from the date of an election for newly-elected officials to assume office. According to Nameoki Supervisor Harry Briggs, the new township officials will take office at the regular town board of auditors meeting, Tuesday, April 22.

The incoming township auditor will benefit from a higher term rate than the deceased officials received. Township voters approved a per diem increase to $25 from $10 at the annual town meeting held election night.

An opposition party ticket of candidates for Nameoki township offices—most of them newcomers to politics—captured all six contested town offices in an unusual upset last Tuesday. It was the first total defeat for an organized incumbent ticket in the Quad-City area in many years.

The official canvass showed the following votes cast: Assessor—Joseph Cohen, 1561, and Frank Mehelec, 1472; town clerk—Louis Whitless, 1590, and John Karlechick, 1418; tax collector—Edgar A. Patrick, 1539, and Gene C. Rotter, 1489; and auditors—Kenneth Gibson, 1555, Robert Beadle, 1609, Douglas Tetter, 1590, Herbert Polley, 1432, Robert Strackelahn, 1394, and James Merchant, 1265.

Nameoki voters cast a total of 3129 ballots, including 52 spoiled or defective ballots, in seven township precincts. Write-in votes also were listed for Margie Cooper, town clerk, one vote; and Luther Wallace, auditor, one vote.

Mrs. Dorothy Menninger, secretary to the Nameoki town board the past eight years, said today that she has been asked to remain in the same post by the new town clerk, Louis Whitless, but has not yet decided whether to continue in the position. Other personnel changes have not been outlined, she said.

Henry VanVertloo, 81, Dies; Ill Past Year

Henry VanVertloo, 81, a life-long resident of the Quad-City area, died at 1:45 a.m. yesterday at the Madison County Nursing Home, Edwardsville, where he had lived for the past year and a half. He had been ill for the past year.

Ten children won prizes in the Granite City park district sixth annual Easter Egg Hunt held in the rain Saturday at 10 a.m. for about 250 children—pre-schoolers, kindergarten and first and second grade pupils.

The Golden Eggs were found by Todd Trester, four years old, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Trester of 2200 Orville avenue; Kim Grammer, eight, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Grammer, 2201 St. Paul street, and Mary Strauser, seven, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Strauser, 1229 Westwood avenue.

David D. James, six, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton James of 2815 Sunset drive, found 64 eggs in the morning hunt.

John Louis Dale, 27, St. Louis, was held in the Madison city jail today on nine charges filed by Madison police after Dale's car was involved in two traffic accidents, caused a near accident and then led police on a wild chase before he was captured. A Granite City woman was injured in one of the accidents.

Dale was overtaken at 10 p.m. in the 1400 block of Eighth street, police reported, after his car caused a near accident at Third and Madison avenue at 9:05 p.m., struck a parked car at Fourth street and Madison avenue at 8:20 p.m. and collided with an auto at Third street and McCambridge avenue shortly before 10 p.m. Officers said he fled the scene at both accidents.

Dale was booked on charges of careless driving, fleeing or attempting to elude police officers, driving under the influence of liquor or drugs, disobeying traffic control device, speeding, passing stop sign, leaving the scene of an accident on two counts, and failing to yield right-of-way.

James S. Ball, 22, Hazelwood, Mo., who was riding with Dale, was booked as a witness and released.

Police said they received a call at 9:05 p.m. that a 1969 model light brown auto had almost caused an accident in the parking lot at Tony & Joe's restaurant, Third street and Madison avenue, and 20 minutes later received a report that a parked car owned by Tony & Joe's, 1229 Fourth street, had been damaged by a hit-and-run auto that fit the description of Dale's car.

At 10 p.m., officers said, a police patrol at Third street and Madison avenue saw the car run the red traffic signal at Madison, headed west. Police pursued the car west on Third to State where the driver ran the stop sign and turned north on State street. The officers radioed for assistance and were joined by another Madison police car and one from Venice.

They said Dale speeded north to Eighth street, then turned east on Third street and collided with another car.

When officers arrived at Madison police headquarters, they said they learned that Dale's car had collided with another car at Third street and McCambridge avenue shortly before the crash report was received.

Police said the accident occurred when Dale's car, headed west on Third street and crossing McCambridge, collided with a car driven north on McCambridge by Larry E. Bannister, 2428 Sunbury drive, and fled the scene of the crash.

Water Technology Course to be Offered

Southern Illinois University-Carbondale campus will enroll the first students this fall in an associate degree program in water resources technology at the Vocational-Technical Institute.

The two-year training course for water and sewage treatment plant technicians was approved last week by the Illinois Board of Higher Education, according to Dean E. J. Simon of the STU Division of Technical and Adult Education.

Simon said the program is designed to meet an increasing shortage of technicians in water resources.

Graduates will be qualified for work on the technical level in industry and federal, state and local facilities, water and waste water plants as operators, public health engineering and sanitation aides, industrial waste technicians, and in sales, installation and service of equipment and chemicals.

By the time the initial class of 30 graduates from the two-year program there will be some 40,000 additional positions for such technicians across the nation, according to a survey by the Federal Water Pollution Control Administration of the U. S. Department of the Interior, Simon said.

No comparable courses are now conducted in Illinois, and only 11 schools in the nation have such programs, he pointed out. This includes five in New York and one each in Maine, Maryland, Missouri, North Carolina, Wisconsin and Texas.

Training institutes for public water supply and sewage treatment plant operators will be conducted as an adjunct to the new associate degree program, Simon said. The institutes were authorized by the Illinois General Assembly to upgrade the level of training of persons already employed in the state.

New Trial Denied for Two Burglary Convicts

The two were convicted of burglary at the Nichols Fish market on Bend road last Aug. 11. They asked for probation, and the case was continued until 8 a.m. April 15.

Employee Strains Back, Sues GM&O for $75,000

A suit for $75,000 was filed last week in Madison county circuit court at Edwardsville for Richard B. Edmiston against the Gulf, Mobile & Ohio Railroad as the result of injuries sustained Nov. 16, 1968, in the Venice rail yards.

The complaint alleges that Edmiston, a GM&O employee, was oiling journal boxes and attempted to lift a lid on one. But it was stiff, causing him to strain his back and other parts of the body, injuring himself. The railroad was charged with negligence for failing to provide proper equipment and a reasonably safe place in which to work.

Area Accident Rate Soaring this Year

The area's traffic accident rate is soaring this year, averaging 7.1 crashes per day for the first quarter, compared to 6.6 during the same three-month period in 1968 and 5.5 per day in the first quarter of 1967.

In the three-month period this year, there were 643 traffic accidents with 306 injuries and six traffic deaths, compared to 598 accidents with 310 injuries and nine fatalities in 1968, showing a sharp drop in traffic deaths and a slight decline in the injury rate.

The statistics are compiled by the Press-Record staff from reports of local, county and state authorities.

Quadrant area totals for March were 226 accidents (7.3 a day), 108 injuries (3.5 a day) and one death. In February, the totals were 202 accidents with 83 injuries and one fatality; while in January, the totals were 215, 115 and 4.

Comparison figures for 1968 show March with 176 accidents, 81 injuries and five deaths, February—169, 98 and 3 and January—253, 131 and one death.

Developing Water System

Developing a private water system for a rural home may cost as much as a new car, and for a farm the system may cost as much as a new tractor. And the system may take six months to construct.

Those planning to develop a private water system or overhaul their present system will want to consult a new 60-page booklet, "Private Water Systems," released by the Midwest Plan Service.

The publication has sections on water quality, water sources, wells, cisterns, ponds, springs, pumps, pressure tanks, piping and water treatment.

The handbook will be an aid to the water system owner faced with operation and maintenance problems and can direct him to appropriate authorities to solve specific water system problems.

"Private Water Systems" is available for $1 from the Extension Agricultural Engineer, University of Illinois, Urbana 61801.

Annual meeting of the Madison County Dairy Herd Improvement Association will be Thursday, April 10 at the United Church of Christ, Midway starting with a banquet at 7:00 p.m.

Association President Waldo Keilbach, Highland, says the guest speaker will be Leo Fryman, Extension Dairy Specialist, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. Fryman will discuss freeze-branding, thyroprotein, projected production, leucocyte count, and other timely dairy topics.

A summary report of results of the past year's DHIA testing program will be given to members.

The ten highest producing herds in the Madison County Dairy Herd Improvement Association in February were owned by Waldo Keilbach, Donald Sievers, Harold & Carl Baumann, Leland Steiner, Willard Blase, Vernon Warnecke, Marvin Stille, Sam Dorsey, Joe & Edwin Fessler and Henry Zoelzer.

The highest producing herd for the month was owned by Waldo Keilbach. This herd consisted of 39 cows. The average production was 1.93 lbs. butterfat and 47 lbs. milk per day with an average butterfat test of 4.1 percent.

Completing the 305 days lactation with a record of 600 pounds fat or more was a 5 yr. old in the herd of Leland Steiner with 18,000 lbs. milk and 632 lbs. fat; in the herd of Jim Beane a 6 yr. old with 16,773 lbs. milk and 621 lbs. fat and a 4 yr. old with 21,474 lbs. milk and 715 lbs. fat; a 4 yr. old in the herd of Willard Blase with 18,068 lbs. milk and 672 lbs. fat; a 6 yr. old in the herd of Sam Dorsey with 18,144 lbs. milk and 772 lbs. fat; a 5 yr. old in the herd of R. M. Kuttin with 15,337 lbs. milk and 632 lbs. fat and in the herd of Joe & Edwin Fessler a 7 yr. old with 19,634 lbs. milk and 665 lbs. fat.

Madison county sheep raisers are invited to the annual Southwestern Illinois Sheep Day Saturday, April 5 at 9:30 a.m. at Turkey Hill Grange two miles southeast of Belleville on Route 460.

Several sheep production topics will be presented, including a sheep dog exhibition. A sheep judging contest and carcass show also are scheduled. Noon lunch will be barbecued lamb. The number of sheep continues to rise and prices are very good and have been strong the past year. Indications are that the wool market may be somewhat stronger than last year.

All this should indicate that the well-managed ewe flock can be a money-maker. Top producers gross more than $50 per ewe.

Many people forget that a ewe flock can be highly profitable and that sheep can do more than just clean up fence rows.

A livestock judging and evaluation clinic is planned for Saturday, April 12 at the Illinois State Fairgrounds in Springfield. If you do some livestock judging at county fairs and other events, or if you are interested in judging, this clinic will be helpful.

The judging event is sponsored jointly by the Cooperative Extension Service, the Land of Lincoln Livestock Breeder's Association, and the Illinois Department of Agriculture.

Clinics will be held for hog, cattle, and sheep judging and evaluation. There will be an official type and evaluation committee for each class of livestock. Registration will begin at 10 a.m.

Soil Tests
Madison county farmers have several thousand soil samples tested each year to inventory the nutrients and acidity in their soil.

Many homeowners also have their lawn or garden soil tested to determine treatment needs.

Soil tests, properly interpreted, provide a sound basis to decide how much limestone, phosphorous and potassium is needed for various crops.

Here is a brief explanation of what each of the four most common soil tests mean.

The pH test measures acidity or alkalinity. A pH of 7.0 is neutral. Tests below 7.0 are acid and above 7.0 alkaline.

A pH test of 6.0 to 6.2 is satisfactory for growing corn or soybeans. Farmers like to maintain the pH at about 6.5. Once the pH level of 6.5 is reached, it doesn't take any more limestone to maintain it at 6.5 than it takes to maintain it at 6.2.

Alfalfa requires a higher pH than does corn and soybeans. A pH of 6.5 or above is satisfactory for growing alfalfa.

Acid soils are treated by applying from two to five tons of limestone per acre. Avoid over-liming garden soil. Many vegetable crops prefer slightly acid soil, and you'll have less plant disease problems when the soil is acid.

Another soil test is the P1 test. This test measures the pounds of available phosphorous per acre in a nine-inch plow depth. P1 tests below 10 are considered low. A test of 30 is very high. A long-range P1 test goal of 40 is satisfactory. It is not necessary to build the P1 tests higher than 40. The P1 test is valuable in determining amounts of available phosphorous needed for various crops.

Another test is the P2 test. It measures pounds of total phosphorous (available and unavailable) in the soil. Therefore, the P2 test is always higher than the P1 test.

The P2 test is the only test upon which we can make rock phosphate recommendations. A P2 test of less than 20 is very low and calls for 1500 pounds of rock phosphate per acre. A test above 75 is high.

A soil test for potassium measures pounds of available potassium per acre. Most Madison county upland soils need large amounts of potash applied every year or two. On such soils about 60 pounds of K2O per acre per year is needed for maintenance.

Hay crops remove more potassium than grain crops. Alfalfa for hay needs about 30 pounds of K2O applied for each ton of hay removed. Too many alfalfa stands in Madison county are being lost due to potassium starvation.

Dark-colored, bottomland soils in Madison county usually test high in potassium, and smaller amounts of potash are needed than on upland soils.

We do not test soil for nitrogen, because the nitrogen test is difficult to interpret. Nitrogen recommendations are based mainly on past experience of response by different crops to nitrogen.

Fertilizer applications should be tailored to specific fields and crops, keeping in mind plant population, expected yields, and potential productivity of the soil.

Teach While You Read

When you read to a child, take advantage of the occasion to also teach, says Claretta Walker, University of Illinois family life specialist.

By getting his attention with a story, you can help the child learn the left-to-right eye movement. You can introduce arithmetic into his life as the occasion arises, help him to recognize letters and words, compare colors, relate pictures to things about him. In other words, discuss what you read and stimulate curiosity.

To help your child develop the habit of looking at the page from left to right start by pointing out examples of pictures as well as words from the left side of the page and then move on to the right side. By following your finger movements the child will get the idea that the story progresses in this fashion and that he'll be reading in this way himself some day.

You can help to prepare your child for reciting in school by stimulating him to think and talk about the story. Ask questions to see if he remembers the sequence of the story. And encourage him to ask questions also.

Reading sessions can become practice sessions with numbers by letting your child count the characters in the story, for example.

And to help him associate the storybook with the world around him, help him to see that colors in pictures are repeated in his clothes or in objects around the room. You might also point out the letters in his name.

In short, help your child to be curious—it's a good start to learning.

Storing Food in Open Cans
Many homemakers have the mistaken idea that it is not safe to allow canned foods to stand in the open can, says Catherine Mauck, Madison County Extension Adviser.

Canned foods may be safely stored in the open cans. Food will spoil no faster and no slower in the opened can than it will if emptied into another container. As with all perishable foods, the food in the opened can should be covered and kept in the refrigerator.

It is true that some acid foods left in an open can will dissolve a little of the metal from the can. This metal does not harm the body, but it may slightly change the taste of the product.

Mrs. Mauck points out that cans and foods are sterilized in the "processing." But the container into which the food might be emptied may be far from sterile. In other words, it is likely to have on it bacteria that cause food to spoil.

Whether in the original can or in another container, the principal precautions for keeping food are to keep it cool and keep it covered.

Bill by Price On Foreign Oil Tax Depletion

Cong. Melvin Price, Democrat, 24th Illinois District, on Thursday introduced tax reform legislation that would eliminate the oil depletion allowance on oil produced outside the United States.

"It is unconscionable," Cong. Price declared, "that over $2 billion of tax-free profits are realized each year because of this loophole, while the average taxpayer pays through the nose."

The Price bill eliminating the 27½% depletion allowance on foreign oil is an outgrowth of a Treasury Department finding that the allowance "is a relatively inefficient method of encouraging exploration and the resultant discovery of oil," since over 40% of it is paid for foreign production and non-operating interests in domestic production.

"It was never expected," Price said, "that the allowance should extend to foreign development and production. The extension of the loophole to foreign operations is indefensible."

Cong. Price reported that because of the depletion allowance and the foreign tax credit, the American oil producers tax liability to the U. S. "is completely washed out."

Suggesting that some domestic depletion allowance may be defensible, since the domestic oil industry pays some state and local taxes and "occasionally some federal income taxes," Price emphasized, "the foreign depletion allowance is an affront to the integrity of our tax system."

Miss Grace Munson, 84, Dies Here Friday

Miss Grace Clara Munson, 84, of Apt. A, 2711 Center street, died at 5:10 p.m. Friday at The Colonades Nursing home, where she had been a patient for the past four years.

Miss Munson, born in Morris, Ill., was a member of the Granite City First United Presbyterian Church.

She is survived by a sister-in-law, Mrs. Mary Munson of Lake Forest, Ill. Funeral services were held today. Details are given in the obituary column.

Committee Formed to Promote Income Tax

A group to promote adoption of a state income tax as the only means to solve the state's financial problems has been formed by 15 Illinois residents.

Called the Committee for a Fair Income Tax, it includes Robert Gibson of Chicago, secretary-treasurer of the Illinois Federation of Labor, a former Granite City resident.

Its major purpose is to publicize the extreme financial needs of the state and the need for action. The group was to hold its first meeting today to discuss specific details, including Gov. Ogilvie's proposed four per cent income tax.

300,000 in District Have Not Yet Filed Tax Returns

The district director of Internal Revenue today made a last-minute appeal to the 300,000 Springfield district taxpayers who have not yet filed their 1968 federal income tax returns.

"Most taxpayers who prepare their own income tax returns do it on the weekend," Jay G. Philpott said. "So I would like to remind them that there's only one more weekend left before the April 15 deadline."

He urged taxpayers to file their returns before Tuesday, April 15 to avoid being penalized for filing a delinquent return.

Director Philpott emphasized five key steps for Illinois residents to follow: use the pre-addressed return and envelope which were received in the mail; recheck the surcharge and the arithmetic; sign the return, attach all Forms W-2, and mail directly to the Internal Revenue Service Center at Kansas City, Mo. 64170.

Taxpayers who need help with their income tax return may contact the nearest IRS office for assistance, he said.

To My 2nd Ward Constituents

Thank you for the splendid support you gave me in last Tuesday's election. I pledge myself to give you and our city the best representation of which I am capable.
